EASTON CHURCH OF GOD

April 13, 2019 began as a dreary, rainy day. But as 11 a.m. drew near, prayers were answered, and the skies cleared for the Easton Church of God to welcome 2,500+ children and parents to its 13th Annual Easter Eggstravaganza!

This event featured four age appropriate egg hunts totaling 50,000 eggs! Children scrambled to fill their baskets in anticipation for candy filled eggs and over 250 tokens to be exchanged for prizes.

The day also consisted of Children's Ministry programs, games, inflatables, carnival rides, face painting, rock climbing wall, popcorn, cotton candy, hot dogs, chips, cookies, drinks, and so much more.

Visits from Elmo, Cookie Monster, Minions, Mickey and Minnie Mouse and the Easter Bunny brought smiles to the little ones' faces.

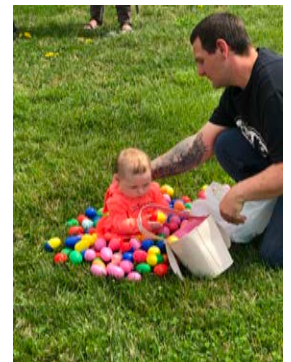

While waiting for their egg hunts to begin, children were thrilled to participate in activities such as a petting zoo, a tour of the Phillips Wharf Environmental Center mobile trailer providing hands-on experiences with the animals and plants of the Chesapeake Bay, safety tips from the Easton Volunteer Fire Co providing a fire truck and firemen, and quality time with representatives from the Talbot County Sheriff's Dept.

What began as a 10,000 egg hunt and just 50 prize tokens has developed in to a true EGGSTRAVAGANZA and is the kick-off for a weeklong celebration culminating with a Resurrection Prayer Walk and Passion Play! The Easton Church of God is blessed to offer the annual Eggstravaganza at no cost to the community.

Pastor Mary Whitehead Coordinates Area Homeless Ministry

Pastor Mary Whitehead of the Healing House Church of God has been coordinating the winter homeless ministry for the Harford County Hope for Homeless Alliance, a network of churches, faith-based organizations, nonprofit entities, businesses and local government organizations that operates the rotating shelters.

Seventy-one people were served through the rotating shelter program during the winter of 2017-18, with about 15 to 20 people a week at the beginning of the season and about 40 people a week as the weather became colder. Congratulations, Pastor Whitehead for your leadership! (The Aegis, January 2019)

Update on E3 Church - Columbia

Pastor Lisulo Lisulo recently reported on the first 10 weeks of E3 ministry in Columbia, MD. Pastor notes, "End of March marks 10 weeks after launch. Average attendance has gone up to 81! We are hoping the Easter event April 13 will give us a push toward Easter." Praise the Lord! Please continue to remember this new church in Columbia, MD.

Discover Church Georgetown, DE

Pastor Curtis Jones reports that Discover Church in Georgetown continues to grow and reach the people of central Sussex County, DE. In March 2019 the church averaged 92! Special plans have been put into place to reach the lost and unchurched during the Easter season. Be sure to pray for Pastor Jones, his family and the Discover Church!
