REACHING PEOPLE AT THEIR POINT OF NEED

48 Delegates Attend Smoky Mt. Jubilee

Forty-eight people from across Delmarva-DC recently attended the annual Smoky Mountain Jubilee for Senior adults. Joining with over 1200 people from across the United States the group enjoyed music by the Talley's and Willis Canada. Pastor Mitchell Tolle brought a challenging message and Christian comedian Larry Delawder kept everyone in laughs as Barney P. Fife! One of the highlight of the meeting was special recognition of all United States military veterans.

Wednesday featured the senior adult talent competition. Talents from across the country was featured. Winners were announced on Thursday morning. Prabhula John from the Rockville Church of God won first place, Short Story category. Congratulations Sister John! Other Competition participants from Delmarva-DC included Randy and Sheila Baker from Pathway Church in Brooklyn, Nick Ferguson from Waldorf, New Hope, and Ruth Shenk from Hagerstown, Virginia Avenue.

News and Updates!

Pastor Darrin Spencer and his family had their first service at Oasis Church on Sunday, January 8, 2017. Eighty people attended this service. The mission of this new Church of God in Eldersburg, MD is "Know God. Find Freedom. Discover Purpose. Make a Difference". Pastor's vision is to become and remain connected to Jesus, the Living Water and share Him with others, as a community, we seek to genuinely and practically live out John 7:37-38. Praise God for a new lighthouse in Eldersburg, MD.

REWIRE 2017

USA Missions sponsored a conference called REWIRE 2017 for church planting and church revitalization. The general sessions were lead by Bishop Tim Hill, Director Mitch Maloney, and Ben Meyer from the Multiplication Network. There were workshops for Church Planters and Church Revitalization. Special emphasis was given to the new initiative of the Church of God concerning church planting.

The International Church of God in Cleveland, TN recently signed an agreement of understanding with the Association of Related Churches (ARC) to provide assessment, coaching and training for church planters identified by the Church of God. ARC has been very successful in planting large churches. The agreement with the Church of God will mean that new church planters will benefit from ARC's assessment, coaching and training.

District Meal With The Bishop

In preparation for the 2017 Delmarva-DC Camp Meeting, June 25 to 28 Bishop Darrell Rice met with pastors from the four districts on the Eastern Shore: Northeast Delmar, Southern DE, Central Shore and Lower Shore. Each District Overseer arranged a meal for the pastors on their district. Following the meal Bishop Rice shared his passion and vision for the camp meeting. Each pastor was encouraged to rally his people to attend camp meeting. Information was shared concerning the various speakers. Bishop Landon Robert, Youth and Discipleship Director and Bishop William Reid, REACH/USA Missions Director also participated. Each Director shared important information on their various ministries.

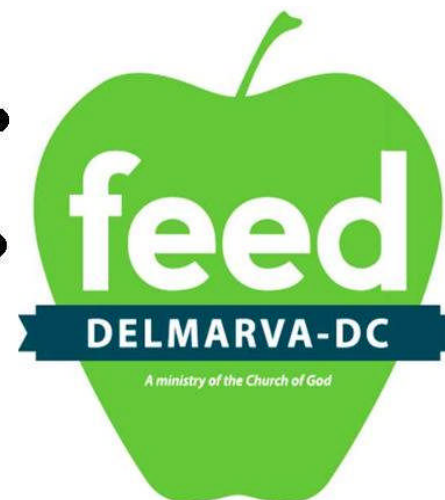

Circle these dates and plan to attend the 2017 Delmarva-DC Camp Meeting at the Raymond E. Crowley Tabernacle outside Seaford, DE.
