Relaunch at Rock Hall

Pastors Eddie and Yvonne Sweeney recently went to Rock Hall, MD to pastor the Rock Hall Church of God. After a few weeks the church decided to have a relaunch. The Sweeney's along with their son, Jonathan and his wife Sierra, have breathed new life into the Rock Hall Church. Working with a relaunch team of 25 people the relaunch has brought new life to the congregation.

You are encouraged to pray for the Sweeney's and the Rock Hall Church of God that they will reap a bountiful harvest!

Delmarva-DC Happenings...

Thank you Living Hope Ministries, Phoenix, MD and Pastor Robert Groves for donating this 15 passenger van, 5000 diapers, and 10,000 baby wipes to City of Refuge! We are together bringing light, hope, and transformation to Baltimore!

A group of students on Spring Break from Walker Memorial spent the day at City of Refuge. They served in our weekly Marketplace and then set to work on cleaning up one of our housing properties. It was so great to have them with us!!

Save the date for the annual Dash4Dignity on April 30, 2022!
The Dash is back in person this year—but don't worry!
You can still sign up for the Virtual Dash, if you can't make the in person event.

Amazing Grace Ministries hosts this 5K run and 1K walk to raise awareness for human trafficking issues, including the needs of survivors. All proceeds go to organizations, City of Refuge being one of them, committed to ending slavery and restoring dignity to survivors of human trafficking.

Delmarva-DC Happenings (continued)

Life Builders Church of God in Forest Hill, Youth Ministry put on a powerful service for Black History Month in February. Their theme for the day was “Remembering the past, pouring into our future!” The service featured several of the church’s young people sharing the significance of Black History Month. Life Builders is pastored by Reverends Rick and Pat Felton!
